*Note- The solar power plant at Kasaragod has its panels installed directly on soil, enabling a portion of the cleaning water to naturally percolate into the ground. The rest of the runoff flows into designated recharge pits, facilitated by the land's intentional slope, thereby contributing to groundwater replenishment over time.

Note- The discharged wastewater is handed over to local municipal bodies responsible for sewage management, such as DJB or NDMC in Delhi. These authorities manage and treat the wastewater after it exits the office building.

5. Has the entity implemented a mechanism for Zero Liquid Discharge? If yes, provide details of its coverage and implementation.

Not Applicable. The Company's core operations are office-based and do not involve significant water usage requiring Zero Liquid Discharge (ZLD). The 50 MW solar PV power plant owned by the Company is operated and maintained by a third-party contractor. However, the plant does not involve water-intensive processes or generate liquid effluents, and therefore a ZLD mechanism is not applicable. Water is used minimally, primarily for periodic panel cleaning, and appropriate water management practices are followed at the site.
